General principles:

- This procedure is intended to allow you to raise a concern or complaint relating to The Learning Academy Trust (Trenance Learning Academy, St Newlyn East Academy, Foxhole Learning Academy, Falmouth Learning Academy, St Merryn School, The Bishops' CofE Learning Academy, Constantine School, Mabe School, Trevisker School and Leedstown School), or the services that it provides.
- The Academy has adopted/will adopt this procedure for complaints from people who are parents/carers of pupils attending the Academy at the time the complaint is made.
- The Academy will usually also follow this procedure when dealing with complaints from others but reserves the right to substitute this procedure for an alternative process where it is appropriate to do so.
- Complainants will be informed about the procedure that will be used to consider their complaint as soon as possible after their complaint is received by the Academy. This procedure does not apply to concerns and complaints relating to the following, which are dealt with under separate policies:
 - staff grievances or disciplinary procedures
 - admissions
 - exclusions
 - issues related to child protection
- To enable a proper investigation, concerns or complaints should be brought to the attention of the Academy as soon as possible. In general, any matter raised more than 3 months after the event, being complained of, will not be considered.
- If, at any stage, the Academy considers the concern or complaint to be persistent, vexatious or amounts to harassment then the concern or complaint will be dealt with in accordance with the relevant part of this policy (Persistent or Vexatious Complaints or Harassment).
- An anonymous concern or complaint will not be investigated under this procedure, unless there are exceptional circumstances.
- If it becomes necessary to alter the time limits and deadlines set out within this procedure, you will be advised accordingly and given an explanation as to why this has been the case and provided with revised timescales.
- A written record will be kept of all complaints, including at what stage they were resolved. Correspondence, statements and records relating to individual complaints will be kept confidential except where access is requested by the Secretary of State or where disclosure is required in the course of an Academy inspection or under other legal authority.

Raising a concern or complaint

1. Informal stage

Many concerns can be resolved by simple clarification or the provision of information.

Where a complaint is about your child or a child attending the Academy, it is normally appropriate to communicate directly with the child's class teacher. Where the complaint is about a member of staff, it is normally appropriate to communicate directly with them in the first instance. This may be by letter, by telephone or in person by appointment, requested via the Academy office. If you wish to hold a meeting to discuss your concern or complaint, it is helpful if you can explain the nature of your concern or the complaint in advance. You may wish to use the Meeting Request Form (Annex 1) provided. It is anticipated that most complaints will be resolved by this informal stage within 10 working days of being notified of the complaint. In the case of serious concerns, it may be appropriate to address them directly to the Headteacher (or to the Chair of the Local Advisory Board or Hub, if the complaint is about the Headteacher). If you are uncertain about who to contact, please seek advice from the Academy Office.

It is anticipated that most complaints will be resolved by this informal stage within 10 working days of being notified of the complaint.

2. Formal Stage

If your concern or complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction at the informal stage or you wish the complaint to be dealt with immediately as a formal complaint, you should put your complaint in writing and send this to the Headteacher who will be responsible for ensuring that it is investigated appropriately. However,

If your complaint is about:	Refer to	How to contact
A Headteacher	Chief Operating Officer via MOR workspace	Mor Workspace, Treloggan Lane, Newquay, TR7 2FP. Tel : 01637 303106
The Chief Operating Officer	Chief Executive Officer via MOR workspace
The Chief Executive Officer	Board of Trustees via Clerk to the Board of Trustees MOR workspace

A Complaint Form is provided to assist you (Annex 2) .

You should include details, which might assist the investigation, such as names of potential witnesses, dates and times of events, and copies of relevant documents.

It is very important that you include a clear statement of the actions that you would like the Academy to take to resolve your concern. Without this, it is much more difficult to proceed.

Your written complaint will be acknowledged within 5 school days of receipt. Please pass the completed form, in a sealed envelope to the Academy office. The envelope should be addressed to the Headteacher, or Chief Operating Officer, Chief Executive Officer or Chair of the Board of Trustees, as appropriate.

The Headteacher (Chief Operating Officer, Chief Executive Officer or Chair) may invite you to a meeting to clarify your concerns and to explore the possibility of an informal resolution. If you accept that invitation, you may be accompanied by one other person such as a relative or friend, who should not be legally qualified, to assist you in explaining the nature of your concerns. Where possible, this meeting will take place within 10 school days of receipt of the written complaint.

It is possible that your complaint will be resolved through a meeting with the Headteacher (Chief Operating Officer, Chief Executive Officer or Chair). If not, arrangements will be made for the matter to be fully investigated.

Following investigation, the Headteacher (Chief Operating Officer, Chief Executive Officer or Chair) will notify you in writing of their decision and the reasons for it. Where possible, this will be within 15 school days of receipt of the complaint.

3. Panel Hearing Stage

If you are dissatisfied with the decision of the Headteacher (Chief Operating Officer, Chief Executive Officer or Chair) under the Formal Stage or if you are not satisfied with the manner in which the process has been followed, you may request that a Review Panel of the Board of Trustees of TLAT is convened to reconsider your complaint. Your request will only be considered if you have completed the relevant procedures at Stages 1 and Stages 2. To request a hearing before the Review Panel, you should write to the Clerk to the Board of Trustees at Mor Workspace, Treloggan Lane, Newquay, TR7 2FP. Any such request must be made in writing to the Company Secretary within 10 working school days of receiving notice of the outcome of the Formal Stage.

You should ensure that you provide copies of all relevant documents and state all the grounds for your complaint and the outcome that you desire. You may wish to use the Complaint Review Request Form (Annex 3) provided to assist you, and include a statement specifying any perceived failures to follow the procedure. The procedure described below will be followed. A Review Request Form is provided for your convenience. The Company Secretary will acknowledge your request in writing within 5 school days of receipt.

Parents/carers can be accompanied at a Panel Hearing if they wish.

Panel Hearing Stage Review Process

Any review of the process followed by TLAT will be conducted by a panel of three members of the Board of Trustees and one other independent person who has not previously been involved in the process.

Every effort will be made to enable the hearing to take place within 20 school days of the receipt of your request. You will be sent written notification of the date, time and place of the hearing, together with brief details of the Panel members who will be present. Fair consideration will be given to any bona fide objection to a particular member of the Panel. Copies of any additional documents you wish the Panel to consider should be sent to the Company Secretary at least 3 school days prior to the hearing. The Panel reserves the right not to consider any documentation presented after this.

You will be asked to attend the hearing and may be accompanied by one other person such as a relative or friend, who should not be legally qualified. The Company Secretary or nominated deputy will also attend the hearing in order to keep a record of the proceedings.

The Review Panel will be conducted in such a way as to ensure that all those present have the opportunity of asking questions and making comments in an appropriate manner. The Panel is under no obligation to hear oral evidence from witnesses but may do so and/or may take written statements into account.

After the hearing, the Panel will consider their decision and inform you of their decision in writing within 5 school days.

The Panel can:

- Request further information from you and/or the Academy to assist them in making their decision
- Dismiss the complaint in whole or in part
- Uphold the complaint in whole or in part
- Decide on the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint
- Recommend changes to the Academy's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not reoccur

The review will normally be conducted through a consideration of written submissions, but reasonable requests to make oral representations should be considered sympathetically.

The Academy reserves the right to rearrange the date of any meeting at any stage should new information regarding the complaint be submitted.

Referral to the Education Skills Funding Agency (ESFA)

If you are dissatisfied with the decision of the Review Panel, you are entitled to refer your complaint to the Education Skills Funding Agency who have limited powers to review the Academy's handling of the complaint in accordance with the ESFA's 'Procedure for dealing with complaints about Academies'. At the time of writing this procedure, the ESFA procedure and the ESFA Academy complaints form are available at:

Persistent or Vexatious Complaints or Harassment

The majority of complaints are handled in an informal manner and are resolved quickly, sensitively and to the satisfaction of the complainant. However, there are occasions when complainants behave in an unreasonable manner when raising and/or pursuing concerns. The consequences are that the actions of the complainants begin to impact negatively on the day-to-day running of TLAT's academies and directly or indirectly the overall well-being of the children or staff in an academy. In these exceptional circumstances the school may take action in accordance with this section of the complaints policy.

Persistent Complainants

Who is a persistent complainant? For the purpose of this policy, a persistent complainant is a parent/carer or member of the public who complains about issues, either formally or informally, or frequently raises issues that the complainant considers to be within the remit of the school, and whose behaviour is unreasonable. Such behaviour may be characterised by:

- i. Actions which are obsessive, persistent, harassing, prolific, repetitious.
- ii. Prolific correspondence or excessive e-mail or telephone contact about a concern or complaint.
- iii. Uses Freedom of Information requests excessively or unreasonably.
- iv. An insistence upon pursuing unsubstantial complaints and/or unrealistic or unreasonable outcomes.
- v. An insistence upon pursuing complaints in an unreasonable manner.
- vi. An insistence on only dealing with the Headteacher on all occasions irrespective of the issue and the level of delegation in the school to deal with such matters.
- vii. An insistence upon repeatedly pursuing a complaint when the outcome is not satisfactory to the complainant but cannot be changed, for example, if the desired outcome is beyond the remit of TLAT because it is unlawful.

Harassment

For the purpose of this policy, harassment is the unreasonable pursuit of such actions above (i - vii) in such a way that they:

- appear to be targeted over a significant period of time on one or more members of school staff and/or
- cause ongoing distress to individual member(s) of school staff and/or
- have a significant adverse effect on the whole/parts of the school community and/or
- are pursued in a manner which can be perceived as intimidating and oppressive by the recipient. This could include situations where persistent demands and criticisms, whilst not particularly taxing or serious when viewed in isolation, have a cumulative effect over time of undermining confidence, well-being and health.
- Breach TLAT's Dignity at Work Policy

TLAT's actions in cases of persistent or vexatious complaints or harassment

In the first instance the school will verbally inform the complainant that his / her behaviour is considered to be becoming unreasonable / unacceptable and, if it is not modified, action may be taken in accordance with this policy. This will be confirmed in writing .

If the behaviour is not modified the school will take some or all of the following actions as necessary, having regard to the nature of the complainant's behaviour and the effect of this on the school community:

- inform the complainant in writing that his/her behaviour is now considered by the school to be unreasonable/unacceptable and, therefore, to fall under the terms of this policy;
- inform the complainant that all meetings with a member of staff will be conducted with a second person present and that notes of meetings may be taken in the interests of all parties ;
- inform the complainant that, except in emergencies, all routine communication with the complainant to the school should be by letter only;
- (in the case of physical, or verbal aggression) TLAT will follow its Policy For Dealing With Unacceptable Behaviour On School Premises
- consider pursuing a case under Anti-Harassment legislation;
- put in place a specific procedure for dealing with complaints from the complainant, i.e. the complainant will not be able to deal directly with the Headteacher but only with a third person to be identified by TLAT , who will investigate, determine whether or not the concern / complaint is reasonable or vexatious and then advise the Headteacher accordingly.
- legitimate new complaints may still be considered even if the person making them is, or has been, subject to the Policy for Dealing with Persistent or Vexatious Complaints and/or Harassment in Schools. However, the school will be advised by its Legal Services.
- If a complainant's persistent complaining/harassing behaviour is modified and is then resumed at a later date within a reasonable period of time, the school may resume the process identified above at an appropriate
